Princeton-Rutgers Undergraduate Philosophy Conference
Schedule

All sessions to take place in Kerstetter Room (Marx Hall 301)

Saturday, March 8
10:30am-12pm: Student Session 1
- Gabriel Lariviere (McGill University), “On Assertion and Knowledge”
- Liz Jackson (Kansas State University), “Beliefs and Blameworthiness”

12pm-1:30pm: Lunch (Tower Room, 1879 Hall)

1:30am-3pm: Student Session 2
- Ryan Scheuring (Chapman University), “A Rejection of the Metacoherence Requirement”
- Zach Blaesi (New York University), “Myths of Morality: Joyce’s Moral Error Theory Meets a Pluralistic Hypothesis”

3pm-3:30pm: Break

3:30pm-5pm: Faculty Keynote
- Prof. Michael Smith (Princeton University) and Prof. Stephen Stich (Rutgers University) on the role of intuitions in philosophy

5:30pm: Conference Dinner (Masala Grill)

Sunday, March 9
9am-10:30am: Student Session 3
- Ethan Perets (Columbia University), “Prospective Memory and Determination of the Subject Referent”
- Isaac Neely (University of Texas at Austin), “Hume’s Labyrinth: Hume and the Self”

10:30am-11am: Break

11am-12:30pm: Student Session 4
- Philip Bold (Brown University), “Would Reliability in Arithmetic Be Striking?”
- Helen Zhao (Johns Hopkins University), “On Our Knowledge of Primary Substances”