

PHI 530 (Fall, 2018)

An examination of different views regarding, first, the relationship between the arts and the rest of life—the nature and connection between moral and non-moral (mostly aesthetic) values—the connection of “high” and “low” art, and the importance of reintroducing the notion of beauty in our thinking about the arts. Readings are drawn from ancient, modern, and contemporary authors.